PRESS RELEASE

Narcotics Arrest in Fernley

On March 4, 2025 at about 1445 hours, Lyon County Deputies responded to the 700 block of Blue Wing Court in Fernley, Nevada, to assist with a lock-out/eviction. During the course of the lock-out, Deputies were given access to the residence to locate property belonging to 67 year old resident Carolyn Cerney. At this time, Deputies located drug paraphernalia and suspected methamphetamine.

Cerney, who was on scene, was contacted and a consent search of her vehicle was conducted. During the search, Deputies located and seized 146 grams of methamphetamine, 12.805 ounces of marijuana, 6 grams of Psilocybin mushrooms, items used in the packaging and sales of illegal narcotics, large amounts of methamphetamine paraphernalia and a large amount of cash.

Cerney was arrested and booked into the Lyon County Jail. Her bail and charges are as follows:

- Trafficking Controlled Substance (Schedule 1, Il 100g-400g)
- Possession of Controlled Substance (Schedule I, Il less than 14g)
- Possession of Marijuana 1 ounces or more (Less than 50LB)
- Possession of Drug Paraphernalia

Bail: $106,140.00
