Yerington High School Senior Named One of Northern Nevada's Top Ten Student-Athletes of the Year

Yerington, NV – Lyon County School District is proud to announce that Cameron Reyes, a student-athlete from Yerington High School, has been named one of Northern Nevada's Top Ten Student-Athletes of the Year.

Presented by the Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association (NIAA), the Top Ten Student-Athletes of the Year award recognizes the most accomplished high school athletes in the state who demonstrate outstanding commitment to their schools and communities.

This prestigious honor is awarded to student-athletes who embody the ideal balance of athletic achievement, academic excellence, leadership, and community involvement. Special emphasis is placed on well-rounded students who have participated in multiple sports, served in student government or other school activities, engaged in meaningful community service, and maintained strong academic performance throughout their high school careers.

According to the NIAA, "This is an outstanding program that honors student-athletes who represent the very best of what high school athletics are meant to be."

Cameron Reyes, who played football for Yerington High School, has been recognized for exceeding the rigorous standards of this award. Lyon County School District congratulates Cameron on this exceptional accomplishment.
